THE MANDELA WASHINGTON FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM is the flagship of President Obama’s Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI). This summer, Dartmouth is hosting 25 Mandela Washington Fellows from 19 countries throughout sub-Saharan Africa for a Business and Entrepreneurship Institute. The flags in this exhibition represent the home countries of Dartmouth’s 2017 Fellows. These accomplished women and men are change agents in their communities.

A short biography for each Fellow has been placed near their flag.

Dartmouth partners: Dickey Center for International Understanding, Thayer School of Engineering, Rockefeller Center, Center for Service, Outdoor Programs, the Office of Conferences and Events, the Dartmouth Entrepreneurial Network, and the Digital Arts, Leadership, & Innovation Lab.
